Dear John:

I regret that under present circumstances and in view of the work I am doing here in Washington I must ask for leave of absence as a member of the International Committee of the National Planning Association. Frankly I am really not in a position to attend meetings or make any effective contribution.

I am writing this in reply to your letter of April 22, 1952. I shall be sorry to miss your meeting at Frank Altschul's delightful place on June 7.

Faithfully yours,

48 Wall Street
New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Chairman Altschul is calling the next meeting of the International Committee on Saturday, June 7. He will be host to this meeting at his home at Overbrook Farm near Stamford, Connecticut. The meeting will begin at 10:00 a.m. Eastern Daylight Time and will be an all day meeting.

We hope very much that you will make your plans now to attend this meeting. I would greatly appreciate it if you would let me know on the attached self-addressed postcard whether you are coming and whether you expect to go to Overbrook Farm by train or car. Attached is a page giving directions for reaching Overbrook Farm by train or by automobile.

There will be a number of important topics on this meeting's agenda, a copy of which I will send you in May. It would be greatly appreciated if you would write me about any topics which you would like especially to have discussed at the meeting.

Also enclosed is a copy of the minutes of the December 12 meeting of the International Committee.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,
